Father's Day

When I was 4 - "My Daddy can do anything! "
When I was 7 - "My Dad knows a lot...a whole lot"
When I was 8 - "My father does not know quite everything"
When I was 12 - "Oh well, naturally Father does not know that either"
When I was 14 - "Oh, Father? He is hopelessly old-fashioned"
When I was 21- "Oh, that man-he is out of date!"
When I was 25 - "He knows a little bit about it, but not much"
When I was 30 - "I must find out what Dad thinks about it"
When I was 35 - "Before we decide, we will get Dad's idea first"
When I was 50 - "What would Dad have thought about that?"
When I was 60 - "My Dad knew literally everything!"
When I was 65 - "I wish I could talk it over with Dad once more"
Too bad I didn't appreciate how smart he was. I could have learned a lot from him.

Precepts to Ponder

Wow! What a great year this has been. As we end this school year and begin making preparations for the next, the word "transition" comes to mind. Transition is defined as passage from one state, stage, subject, or place to another; or change (Webster's). The most amazing change has been the children. Babies that came in as young infants are now walking and talking. Toddlers who were just walking are now talking and going to the potty. Children who once cried when they were dropped off in the morning are now crying when it's time to go home. As our children have changed, we, as adults, have changed. Whether it's our response to a particular situation, or to a question, we have changed. The one person that has remained constant and will continue to be constant is God. God's word tells us in Numbers 23:19 (NLT) "God is not a man, so he does not lie. He is not human, so he does not change his mind. Has he ever spoken and failed to act? Has he ever promised and not carried it through?" There are very few absolutes in life, but we can be assured that what God says, will always come to pass.

Have a Great Summer!!
